A MILL WANTED

(AT) ROANOKE - TEXAS.

Good wheat growing section. A liberal bonus will be given to parties who will erect a good mill in our town. Address

W. L. SHEEHILL,
Roanoke, Texas.

PERSONAL.

Dr. J. R. Wallace, of Keller, was in the city yesterday.

J. C. Higgins of Lampasas, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Honney Campbell has accepted a position at the Local Option.

Bobby Cobb, of Henrietta, is disporting himself upon the boulevards of the city.

A. P. Foster, post-office inspector for this division, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. J. S. Cooper has returned from a brief visit to her old home in Mississippi.

Mr. Hayden, of Chenoaweth, Watkins & Hayden, Aurora, Tex., was in the Fort yesterday.

J. W. Wilson, of Gainesville, one of the cow monarchs of whom North Texas is justly proud is in the city.

W.H. Hale, one of our efficient constables, arrived home yesterday from Arkansas, where he has been for some time past.

Morgan Jones has returned from Galveston. He says the material for supplying that city with water for fire prevention has been purchased.

J. G. D. Boyd, a prominent cattle man of Grandview, and a friend of the GAZETTE, dropped into this office yesterday while he was in the Fort.

The GAZETTE had a pleasant call yesterday from E. T. Healy, of the Bedford neighborhood, and was glad to see him in such fine health and spirits.

Sheriff Wright accompanied by Deputy Sheriff McClellan, of Clay county, was in the Fort yesterday hunting up witnesses on the Clay county fence cutting.

B. F. Leonard, of Eastland, was in the city yesterday on his return from St. Louis, which he says is the liveliest town outside of Fort Worth he has ever seen.

Mr. Robert L. Carlock, a promising young lawyer from Tennessee, has become associated in the practice of his profession with W. G. Horsley. Their card appears on the first page of this issue.

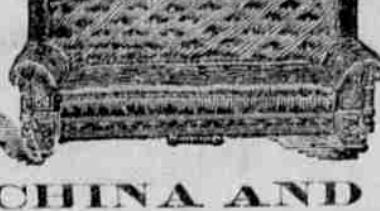

The many friends of Miss Gordo Edsall will regret to learn of her protracted illness. The social circles of our city miss her charming presence very much. The GAZETTE hopes the young lady will soon be at her post of duty as usual.

SILVER LOAF BAKING POWDER never has superior.

SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.

A select school for young ladies will be opened in this city September 10th by Mrs. Mat Welch Hill on East Belknap street, two doors below the residence of Robert McCart, Esq. Mrs. Hill will give instructions in all the classics, including Latin and French and the higher branches of mathematics. Music will also be taught and the school will be complete in all its branches and just such a one as is necessary to the proper and thorough training of young ladies. For rates, apply to the principal. Mrs. Hill also has a vacant room in the house which she would like to rent to a single or widow lady who would be a companion for her.
